Nationwide Cloud-Based Real Estate Marketing Company Opportunity

With a team of 20 employees, a top-rated SEO optimized website, and an incredibly valuable and continually updated database of over 1,000,000 agents, the Company sends millions of E-flyers per day from agents to other agents.

The Company has developed the industry's first ever patent pending E-Flyer App, which has been launched with excellent national technology reviews. The Company has also developed its own production and delivery software which has allowed them to be well positioned to meet increasing customers' needs with minimal increase in resources.

The ideal partner/buyer is either in the industry and looking to expand the services they provide to the real estate community, or is interested in utilizing the internally developed software and systems in place to enhance customer experiences in other markets.
